“Ann and Lowell Fletcher have made a very special mark in my heart and soul over the last 25 years. My very first job in Tennessee was working for Lowell shucking mud out of Shekinah's basement after a wall collapsed. The first week, Ann and Lowell invited me and my family to dinner in their home. As we sat down, Ann noticed that we were facing away from the sunset out their window. She insisted that we sit at the other side of the table so that we could enjoy the sunset while we shared their delicious meal and fellowship. Since that time, Ann has taught me intercessory prayer, true Christian tolerance and a temperance for others that shall carry in my heart forever. I doubt that there shall ever be a family like Lowell and Ann Fletcher. I am so sorry that I missed the celebration but I take great joy in knowing that Ann is finally with her precious Lowell. Most sincerely. John Adderley.

“Memories of the times Lowell and Ann were in our home playing Pinochle. We were all so young then, and having such a good time. Beyond that we were brothers and sisters in Christ, serving Him as we learned more of His love for us.

“Will always remember her 'treat drawer' full of toys for visiting children when she lived behind Cedar Grove. Such a giving person!

“ Ann was a mentor to me when I was young and I will always remember her love to me. Lowell, too, always shared his home and love with me. I will miss you Anne. Thank you for everything you did for me.

“ Ann was such an amazing servant of the Lord with so much love and so much faith. Prayers for the family during this transition, but such rejoicing for this beautiful lady who has earned many crowns. What greetings there must have been when she arrived! I will always remember visits to her home as a child, and then going with Mom to see her at Shekinah at the beginning of that ministry. She was such a great lady.

Ann was such a beautiful person. Always smiling and always so pretty. I enjoyed my times getting to visit with her. I know she will be greatly missed. She and all of her sisters were very sweet ladies. She leaves behind a great legacy as one of the most God loving people that I knew. She loved her family and especially her church. I know Heaven is a little brighter now with her presence. Rest well in the arms of Jesus precious soul.
