

Ms. Martha Abigail Ruth Fox

July 25, 1977 - January 16, 2015

KINGSPORT

Loving mother, sister, and friend, Martha Abigail Ruth Fox died on Friday (January 16, 2015) at her home, in Kingsport, TN.

Abigail was born at home in Swansea, S.C. in 1977. She was always in motion, exploring life, the world, and other people. In college, she backpacked across Europe, spoke fluent French, and lived a year in a tiny apartment overlooking the rooftops of Aix en Provence. She graduated from Lenoir-Rhyne University and also earned her Master's degree in International and Intercultural Communications from the University of Kentucky.

Abigail was love and laughter. She had a gift for exaggerating situations that was disarming and hilarious. She gave crushing hugs exactly when they were needed. She loved her family and friends without reservation. Abigail loved to write letters. She sent them in elaborately decorated envelopes stuffed to the point of structural failure. Like her, the words within were composed of energy and emotion; italics and capitals, underscores and exclamations.

Faced with a multitude of challenges, Abigail met each with a steady faith, sunshiny optimism, determination, patience, and great love.

Abigail is preceded in death by her parents, Merry Claire Fox-Fuller and Robert Lamar Fuller.

She is survived by her beautiful children, Gabriel and Merry Grace; and siblings Jos'h, Elly, Jon, and Zoë.

Abigail's family and friends will be holding a private memorial service to honor her memory and life.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to Interfaith Hospitality Network at <http://ihngk.org/Make%20a%20Donation.html>

“ Abby and I met on an outward bound course in North Carolina during the summer of 1994. We stayed in touch for several years and her amazing letters got me through some tough times. We continued writing and visiting each other for at least the next five years. She even came to senior prom at my NC high school in 1995! I've looked for her off and on over the years, and am heartbroken to learn of her passing. Her light will continue to shine through all those she knew and touched, and I know she will be missed every day. May peace be with you all.

Words fail me, but they never failed my sweet friend Abigail. I have known her for many years and was looking forward to many more. I will miss her sweet voice, her laughter, her knowing every single word to a thousand songs, her passion, how she did everything with a flourish, her faith in God, how she made every tiny moment with her beloved babies special, her determined spirit, her love for her family and friends, how she styled her hair, her brilliance, I could go on and on. I guess I was able to find some words. Abigail, sweet sweet friend I will miss you and my deepest sympathies go out to her family and other friends.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Abigail in 2012 she ask me to come see her children in the Christmas play, they were truly a delight and the light of her life she spoke of them often at that time I was a newly born christian and wanted to reach out to her she was beatiful inside and out, we had several dinners together in brief time I knew her, we lost touch with each other. I tried to contact her last year through her church ask if they would just give her a message to call me, I wish I could have spoken with her one last time, I never heard from her I do hope however she got the message. Always remember her beauty and grace and the special times

“ Abigail was my sweet mate Freshman year at LRU. She was infectious, determined, had huge aspirations... She was a girl who had a vision and you just knew she would achieve her dreams. I lost track of her after college but never forgot her. I pray for her family and loved ones who have to say goodbye to Abby for now. I hope you can celebrate her life and pray she is jumping and leaping and squishing her parents up in heaven with her gigantic hugs. Rest in Peace Abigail!
