“ So sorry for your loss. I have great memories with the family growing up. I always thought Pam was so sweet and people just loved being around her. Had lost touch with her and the family. Mom and I just wanted to say we are sorry to hear she is no longer with us. Betty Carter and Pamela (Carter) Cornwell.

“ I have so many Memories with Pam we were like two sisters. One of my memories was when she lost her job at book store she started worrying about work. I started back in the workforce then. I got a job which I happen to get us both into doing store resets for IGA's then that was getting ready to end and we both got on working for Acosta doing Food City resets. The last day of that job her and I was together and I had been online and put in for Advantage Sales and Marketing. I got a call for an interview that very day. Pam was with me and I know she did not have any prospects of a job, so I ask Matt Carter if he had 2 positions that I had a friend who needed a job and sure enough he did. We had our interview and 2 days later got the call and we were both hired.

Went for training and on second day he looked at is both and told us we reminded him of the Thelma and Louise. Pam and I both started horse laughing and he did not know why but night before she and I had watched the movie and we thought that movie fit us.

The rest is history. I do love my friend who I consider my Sister and Thank God for letting me have known her and been part of her life.

“ I will never forget the time I was at a really low point in my life. I called you and you said girl come on over bring a bag and spend the night. I came over and you and I stayed up talking and laughing most of the night...When I left the next day I felt so much better and refreshed. Thanks for listening and being there for me when I needed it the most! You will be forever remembered and close to my heart...Rest in Peace my beautiful friend the world truly will never be the same...

“ I never make brownies without thinking of you. I will never be able to make "strawberry pies" without thinking of you. I have flowers in my yard.. trust me, they were here. I didn't do it. But you would be proud! I still hang your ornaments on my tree EVERY year without fail. I still have lots of ceramics we made together. (You made me be crafty, thank you for that!). I am so sorry that I moved back after 15 years and we didn't have a chance to catch up. I love you my friend! One day I can tie a bandana on my head, paint my chin, and hear your laughter that always made me laugh too!

“ My favorite memory of Pam was when we were late teens out riding horses and she and our friend Tammy were riding my horse Tony and he ran them under a tree and they both landed on the ground. We had some really great times together. Wish we had gotten together recently like we talked about. I will miss you. Love, Beth

Family and friends will always miss you here on this Earth, but I know those who had gone before were waiting with open arms. As much love as you had here, I can only imagine the love and rejoicing you experienced the moment you let go of your physical body. I know we'll see you again one day, Pam.
