“ I will never forget the time that Dwan got soo mad at a guy and I told her to take a bat and go out side and beat the crap out of a tree... instead of a tree she took the bat and beat the crap out of a medal chair.. After that was sat down on the ground and started laughing... Then one time me bubbies josh and dwan went to the park and we walked across the swing bidge and Bubbies was like look mamma im fling and we just couldn't stop lauging...

Bubbies always wanted to watch bunny hop... He called the cat in the hat bunny hop.... because he saw the cat do the bunny hop....

“ My mind just doesnt want to accept this. What a wonderful young lady, who ALWAYS had a smile and kind word every time I saw her. She genuinely cared about people, and no matter what kind of day she was having, she never let it show when she was talking to you. I am sad beyond words and my heart breaks.

She and Patrice were my best friends growing up n there was never a dull moment with us three :) I can remember countless times we had sleep covers and Dwan would eat a whole large pizza and still muster up the energy to do back flips and cart wheels on my mommas couch :) I regret that we have lost touch in the past 10 years and only met her children once at food city come to think of it that was the last time we spoke... may God our heavenly father lay his hands upon Dawn, Chris, Myee, and Kenny and provide them with the comfort and peace in knowing HE HAS provided for each of his children a perfect place in heaven where they will LIVE eternally and one day meet again with their earthly family.. rest in peace sweet angels*

“ Dwan & Brayden:

You will be greatly missed. I wish I could have caught up with you in the past decade.

Last time that I saw you was at the Laundry Mat @ Cabana Apartments. That was right after you had your first son. You were so happy to be a Mother, and just bragged about him, and showed me picture after picture. I know your oldest son will be missing you, and his little brother, but know that he will be prayed for everyday until he meets you again.

It's definitely true when they say, "Only the good die young". Fly High. XoXoX

She loved Dwan and Chris so much. I know that Mama was there to greet Dwan and her son when they ascended on that tragic day. May God less her dear Mother and her family and give them strength through the coming days.
